

HOW A BILL BECOMES A LAW - Project

Choose one of the following options to show how the federal law-making process works in America (how an idea turns into a bill that then becomes a law). It should include: inception, introduction, committee work, floor debate, voting, both chambers of Congress, the President's role and the judicial implications.

OPTION 1: FLOW CHART

- Create a flow chart demonstrating the complete lawmaking process.
- This flow chart must be illustrated appropriately.
- Use color and unique design to "spice it up!"
- Label each step.
- Use construction paper, poster board, or some other type of "fancy" paper.

OPTION 2: CARTOON

- Create a colorful cartoon, using as many panels as necessary, in order to fully explain how a bill becomes a law.
- The cartoon must be illustrated appropriately.
- Use color and unique design to "spice it up!"

OPTION 3: STORY

- Write a story demonstrating complete understanding of the lawmaking process.
- The story should be from "Bill's" perspective. Explain how you bring the "Bill" to life.
- The story should be approximately 1 - 2 pages in length, typed.
- Be sure to develop the characters, and a plot including a conflict and resolution.
- The story must be typed according to school guidelines.

OPTION 4: SONG

- Write a song that demonstrates the complete lawmaking process.
- The song should be approximately 2 - 5 minutes in length.
- Record the song to and produce a typed copy to turn in.

OPTION 5: POEM

- Write a poem that demonstrates the lawmaking process.
- The poem should be approximately 20 to 30 lines.
- The poem must be typed according to school guidelines.

OPTION 6: Other

- Create your own idea that demonstrates the lawmaking project.
(must be pre-approved by teacher)

Name: _____ Period: _____ Date: _____

Instructions:

- Please select from one of the 6 options listed for this project.
- Please see me if you have any other ideas. You must get it approved first.
- The rubric attached will explain what is expected from you. Please read it carefully, and be sure to accomplish all that it asks for. You don't want to lose points because you "didn't know you had to do that."
- You may work with someone else if you have a good reason to do so and must be pre-approved. You will have limited class time to meet together. What will be expected from a group will be greater than from a single individual.
- The GRADING RUBRIC MUST be submitted with your final item.
